Dear Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that His Majesty's Government of Nepal have decided to apply for the membership in the INTERPOL. I therefore request you to consider this letter as an application and place this for consideration before the forthcoming session of INTERPOL. In this connexion I may draw your attention to a telegram dated August 12, 1967 addressed to the organization.

His Majesty's Government have for this purpose designated the Inspector General of Police, Police Headquarters, Kathmandu, to act as Interpol National Central bureau correspondent.

I may also inform that His Majesty's Government have allocated Swiss Francs 2730/- as annual financial contribution to the said organisation.

Yours sincerely,

(J. N. Singh)
Foreign Secretary
it said that he would reply to this letter and send (Gerskirchen the best wishes of the Assembly.

DELEGATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP

SECRETARY GENERAL informed the Assembly that two countries had submitted applications in due form for membership of the Organization: Iraq and Nepal. He read the application from Nepal which had been sent in telegraphic form on 19th August 1967 and a written on 29th August 1967 by the Nepalese Minister of Affairs. He then asked the Iraqi representative to submit Iraq's application.

Representative of Iraq explained that his country's Government felt the need for co-operation with international police forces for several years and had now decided to apply for membership of the I.C.P.O. He assured the Assembly that his Government would do all in its power to promote the success of the application.

(Applause)

The vote on the applications from Iraq and Nepal was held by all-call and secret ballot.

Results of the ballot:

Total number of delegations voting: 62

Number of votes in favour: 58

Number of votes against: 0

Abstentions: 4
The PRESIDENT expressed his satisfaction with the results of the ballot and declared that Iraq and Nepal were now members of the I.C.P.O.

The Iraqi representative then took his seat among the other affiliated countries' delegations.

The IRAQI DELEGATE expressed his deep gratitude to the Assembly for accepting his country as a member of the Interpol community. He said that his country's police would spare no effort to co-operate with their counterparts in other countries to combat international crime. He then said he wished to take advantage of the opportunity afforded him to thank the Japanese Government for its warm hospitality.

4. PROGRESS REPORT (Report No. 1)

The PRESIDENT asked the delegates to turn to Report No. 1, which gave an account of the activities of the Organization and of the Secretary General since the previous General Assembly session. The Secretary General then said he would comment on the Report in question and asked the Assembly to request any further explanations that they needed.

I. RELATIONS WITH COUNTRIES

The Secretary General began by saying how pleased he was that the Assembly now had a hundred members. He then said that he was pleased at the Asian Regional Conference - which had begun its meeting...

No. 4116 - NEP/1

Dear Sir,

I am very happy to be able to inform you that the General Assembly of the I.C.P.O.-INTERPOL meeting in Kyoto at its 36th session approved your application for membership in the Organisation by 58 votes in favour and 0 vote against with 4 abstentions.

Many congratulations on your success.

I have already contacted the Inspector General of Police of Nepal and made the necessary arrangements with him to set up a Bureau enabling the Nepalese police to co-operate actively and fruitfully with the police of the other 99 member countries.

Yours faithfully,

J. NEPOTE
