The candidate must have police leadership and management experience. Peacekeeping or other international experience at a mid to senior level is required. Qualifying years of experience are calculated following the graduation from the police academy or similar law enforcement training institution.

Languages :

English and French are the working languages of the United Nations Secretariat. For this post advertised, fluency in English (both oral and written) is required. Knowledge of an additional official UN language, preferably French, is desirable.

Assessment Method :

Evaluation of qualified candidates may include an assessment exercise which may be followed by a competency-based interview.

Special Notice :

Circulation of this Job Opening is limited to Member States. Only police officers currently employed in their national service and who have received authorization by their National Authorities to apply for this Job Opening will be considered.

The Appointment is limited to service within the Department of Peace Operations on posts financed by the support account for peace operations requiring active police service. During their tenure, seconded officers cannot be transferred or be reassigned to other positions within DPO or the UN Secretariat. It should be noted that successful candidates will be offered a two year Fixed-Term appointment which, based on performance and operational needs, may be extended to a third year or in exceptional circumstances to a fourth and final year.

Currently serving seconded active-duty officers under a UN contract are not eligible to apply or to be nominated for another seconded positions in the UN until separated for at least one year from any last secondment on a UN contract with the UN Secretariat. As a result, the nomination of currently serving seconded active-duty police officers under a UN contract will not be considered.

Nominations from women candidates are highly encouraged.
